

Institutional Accreditation Cover Letter

Thank you for your interest in applying for Institutional Accreditation. You must be an IDA Global Partner organization in good standing to apply. This process will ensure that your institution meets professional standards of operational integrity and quality related to services that are consistent with IDA values and definition of dyslexia. IDA welcomes your suggestions for improving the Self-Study Report and overall process.

Is your institution ready to invest in applying for IDA Institutional Accreditation?

This brief online questionnaire will help you decide if you are ready. Answer ALL eight questions and then submit your answers. You will automatically receive a score.

What does your score mean?

0 – 4 = Your institution is not ready to apply.

5 – 6 = your institution is almost ready to apply.

7 – 8 = Yes, your institution is ready! Apply now.

Pre-Application questionnaire

If your score is between 0 and 6, see the Institutional Accreditation Plan to help you understand and meet the requirements prior to applying.

Y	N	1. We are an IDA Global Network Organization in good standing.
Y	N	2. We have a non-provisional, government-issued license to operate.
Y	N	3. We have a current three (3) year Strategic Plan with a clearly defined vision, mission, goals and objectives.
Y	N	4. We have documented sources of financial support to sustain efficient operations.
Y	N	5. We have personnel with the appropriate qualifications for the institution's organizational management.
Y	N	6. We have a plan for regular and continuous self-evaluation and ongoing development of mission and goals.
Y	N	7. We have data that shows the benefits of our programs and services.
Y	N	8. We have reports of internal and external reviews of the institution.

Before you submit the Initial Application, please:

- Confirm your active status as an IDA Global Network Organization to Dana Nwoye (dnwoye@dyslexiaida.org), Manager, Special Projects for the International Dyslexia Association.
- Read and understand the IDA Institutional Accreditation Plan and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)
- Review the Self-Study Report in the Accreditation Plan
- Identify a primary Contact Person from your organization that will coordinate the accreditation process.
- Budget sufficient time and resources for the Contact Person and other personnel involved in the accreditation process.
- Secure a source of funding or have adequate resources for the Initial Application expenses:
 - ❖ $1,000 for initial application (IDA Administrative Fees)
 - ❖ Credit Card Payment is required at the time of the Initial Application

After you submit your Initial Application:

- Contact an IDA Accredited Institution on their insights and experience regarding the accreditation process
- You will be assigned an IDA Mentor to guide you through the accreditation process and to help you identify and assemble the accreditation criteria and electronic documents outlined on the Self-Study Report

- Complete the Self-Study Report
- Assemble a Digital Inventory in English of the evidence supporting each of the Institutional Accreditation Standards.
- Secure a source of funding or have adequate resources for the IDA Institutional Accreditation expenses listed below:
 - Paid upon signing of Institutional Accreditation Project Agreement
 - $1,000.00 Mentor Honorarium for Technical Assistance and Evaluation
 - Billed 60 - 90 days prior to Site visit
 - $1,000.00 Site Visit Honorarium Work

Arranging Your Site Visit

Your organization's primary contact person will receive written confirmation from IDA, based on the recommendations of your IDA Mentor, as to whether or not your organization is ready to move forward with the site visit portion of the Institutional Accreditation process and provide instructions for next steps.

Arrangements for your in-person site visit, including payment for additional site visit services, including but not limited to airfare, lodging, and meals, are made directly between the applicant and the IDA Accreditation Reviewer.

We look forward to working with you!