

INSTITUTIONAL ACCREDITATION

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is Institutional Accreditation?

IDA Institutional Accreditation is a formal recognition that the institution meets professional standards of operational integrity and quality related to services consistent with IDA values and definition of dyslexia.

2. Does an Institution have to be affiliated with the International Dyslexia Association to receive Institutional Accreditation?

Yes. The institution must be an IDA Global Network Organization of IDA in good standing to be considered for Institutional Accreditation.

3. What are the benefits of Institutional Accreditation?

- Display international recognition of your organization's operational integrity and quality related to services
- Demonstrate the operational integrity and quality related to services to current or potential clients
- Demonstrate the operational integrity and quality related to services to current or potential funders
- Demonstrates your organization meets regulatory requirements

4. What are the prerequisites to apply for accreditation?

Ensure the following before you apply for accreditation:

- Complete the Initial Questionnaire to determine if your organization is ready to apply
- Confirm your active status as a Global Partner with IDA
- Read and understand the IDA Institutional Accreditation Plan
- Review the Self-Study Report
- Identify a primary contact person from your organization that will coordinate the accreditation process.
- Contact an IDA accredited institution for their insights and experience regarding the accreditation process.
- Budget sufficient time and resources for the primary contact person and other personnel involved in the accreditation process.
- Secure funding or resources for the fees (see FAQ question 7 for the fee schedule.)

5. What are my next steps when I fulfill the prerequisites?

You are ready to submit your organization's Initial Application. IDA will provide your organization with instructions on how to access the Initial Application. Please contact dnwoye@dyslexiaida.org for more information.

- Complete the Initial Application and submit the required $1,000 Initial Application fee.
- Your organization will be assigned an IDA Mentor to guide you through the accreditation process and help you identify and assemble the accreditation criteria and electronic documents outlined in the Self-Study Report.

Please note: All documentation provided will have to be made in English and certificates/licenses issued in local language will have to be translated to English for the benefit of the visiting Accreditation Officer.

6. How do I pay the fees?

Payment is made to the International Dyslexia Association (IDA) in US Dollars by the following method:

- Credit Card (Visa, Master Card, Discover, American Express)

7. Is there a payment schedule?

Yes.

Fee Payment Schedule (To IDA):

- Initial Application Payment
 - $1,000.00 IDA Administrative Fees
- Paid upon signing of Institutional Accreditation Project Agreement
 - $1,000.00 Mentor Honorarium (Technical Assistance and Evaluation)
- Billed 60 - 90 days prior to Site Visit
 - $1,000.00 Honorarium Work (Site Visit)

Site Visit Fee Schedule:

Arrangements for in-person site visit, including payment for additional site visit services, including but not limited to airfare, lodging, and meals, are to be arranged between the applicant and the IDA Accreditation Reviewer.

8. What happens after I complete the Self-Study Report with the support of my IDA Mentor?

- Review the Institutional Accreditation Plan and Self-Study Report and convey any questions to your IDA mentor.
- Review your organization's digital inventory of the evidence/documentation supporting each of the Institutional Accreditation Standards to ensure it is complete; seek help from your IDA Mentor as appropriate

Please note: All documentation provided will have to be made in English and certificates/licenses issued in local language will have to be translated to English for the benefit of the visiting Accreditation Officer.

Your organization's primary contact person will receive written confirmation from IDA, based on the recommendations of your IDA Mentor, as to whether your organization is ready to move forward with the site visit.

9. How does the organization prepare for the IDA Accreditation Officer's site visit?

Steps to prepare for the IDA Institutional Accreditation site visit will be outlined in the Institutional Accreditation Project Agreement.

10. What arrangements must the organization make if primary contact person/key stakeholders are not fluent speakers of English?

The organization must arrange and pay for a qualified English translator. Interviews could be recorded, hence necessary permission to be obtained in advance.

11. Can I track my application online?

Yes. Your organization's primary contact person will be provided with a link to track your progress.

12. What will be the validity for the Accreditation certificate awarded?

Accreditation is valid for a period of four (4) years.

13. What will be the process of renewal of Accreditation?

Organizations can apply for renewal 12 months before the existing certificate expires.

14. Is there a penalty/disadvantage if the renewal process is not initiated on time or lapses for a considerable amount of time?

The organization will have to pay a penalty fee for lapse in renewal.
